

2016 Information Security Module 4 – Post Test Questions

1. Some ways to recognize a phishing email include:

- a) Unusual file attachments
 - b) Unknown sender
 - c) Suspicious website links
 - d) All of the above
-

2. One way to remember your password includes:

- a) Using paraphrases instead of passwords
 - b) Using simple passwords such as 123456
 - c) Writing your password down on a sticky note next to your computer
 - d) Using the same password for all your logins
-

3. What are some ways to secure your mobile device?

- a) Keep your mobile device software up to date
 - b) Password-protect your personal device with a PIN
 - c) Configure the lock screen feature to come on after a short period of inactivity
 - d) All of the above
-

4. Payment card data includes:

- a) The primary account number or PAN
 - b) The cardholders name and address
 - c) The payment card expiration date
 - d) All of the above
-

5. If you receive a suspicious looking email:

- a) Do not respond in any way
- b) Do not click on any web links
- c) Do not open any attachments
- d) All of the above

6. How can you avoid becoming a victim of phishing?

- a) By learning how to recognize the clues of a phishing scam
 - b) Avoid using email
 - c) Ask the criminals to be taken off their email list
 - d) None of the above
-

7. Select all that apply. Protecting payment card data includes:

- a) Reporting known or suspected instances of unauthorized access, use or disclosure of cardholder data
 - b) Saving credit card information to your desktop
 - c) Leaving credit card numbers exposed on your desk
 - d) Maintaining safeguards for protection of cardholder data
-

8. Who has the responsibility of keeping Sharp secure?

- a) A dedicated security team
- b) All of Information Systems Department
- c) The entire Sharp workforce
- d) No staff, only technical tools are used